

Constitution Vocabulary Notes:

Define (or review) the following basic terms.

- Convention – a meeting of minds
- Constitution – a plan of government that describes the different parts of government and their duties and powers.
- Democracy – government in which power is trusted to all the people.
- Republic – government by elected representatives